Gretna High School
Library

Foreword

A new and challenging educational institution, hereby known as Gretna Senior High School, became a reality this year. Gone are the shrill sounds and "childish" antics of the Eighth-and Ninth-graders; only the mature utterings of sophisticated upper-classmen remain in our hallowed halls. These are students whose desire for self-improvement and future esteem has compelled them to achievements that are exposed on the following pages of our chronicle. Witness, then, the results of our infant year as Gretna Senior High.

To Dream The Impossible Dream

To Fight The Unbeatable Foe

To Try When
Your Arms Are Too Weary

To Reach The Unreachable Star.

Dedication: The Impossible Dream Answered.

MR. JAMES L. McKEEVER

He is the man we see each morning.
The man who listens to our excuses.
He is happy and contented with his life and his job.
Although both have given him problems.
He can make his students laugh out-loud
Or he may make them want to cry.
He is respected and needed and has been throughout his life.
He is the impossible dream answered.
Because of his hard work and patience
We dedicate the 1970 Junction to
JAMES L. McKEEVER.

Seniors

The officers of the senior class are as follows: President Carol Aylor, Vice President Mike Felts, Secretary Jeff Pickeral, Treasurer Sherrill Moon and Reporter David Payne.

The Senior sponsors are Mr. Wilkerson, Miss Brown, Mrs. Berger, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Short, Mr. Diggs, Miss Galles, Miss Quarles, Mrs. Franks.

One of the largest graduating classes at Gretna Senior High School has a total of 248 members. 120 of these students have already completed applications for continuing their education next year either at colleges, business schools or some specific training. Two outstanding seniors, Steve Taylor and Carol Aylor, received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Test.

All seniors participated in a variety of extra-curricular activities, including music, sports, drama, and clubs. Seven of the senior girls led fans and underclassmen in cheers while fifteen of the senior boys played their best to secure victories for the Hawks. In basketball we had two senior girls leading the Hens to victory and nine senior boys winning for the Hawks.

For the first time the Senior class sponsored their Prom. It was held on May 15.

Graduation will be the main event of our senior year. Each student is looking forward to receiving his diploma.

A Key To Unlock Our Future

FIRST ROW: H. Dalton; M. Bond; R. Jones; F. Campbell SECOND ROW: C. Odell; V. Saunders; A. Ingram; M. Owens; K. Walker; C. Hutherson THIRD ROW: K. Felts; D. Shelton; J. Scruggs; S. Smith.

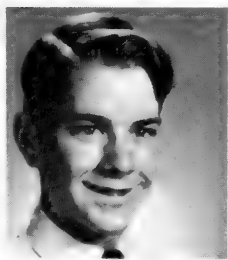

The class of "72" consisting of around 250 students has been very active in school activities this year. The students participated in sports such as basketball, football, track, baseball, and cheerleading. For the first time GHS organized a group of JV cheerleaders made up of sophomore girls. They were elected to cheer the JV basketball team on to victory. This team consisted of boys that are in the Sophomore Class. We are very proud of this team.

The sophomores enjoy such subjects as band, biology, English, phys. ed., geometry, and they can take a foreign language.

Many of the sophomores engage in varsity sports also. They are in various clubs and have many talents.

The sophomore class sponsors are Miss Foley, Miss Hall, Miss Douthat, Mr. Locust, Mr. Byrd, Mrs. Scott, Mr. Craddock, Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Angel, and Miss Strawder.

All of the sophomores are looking forward to next year when they become Juniors and to the following years that they hope will make a bright future.

In Memory Of Sorrow

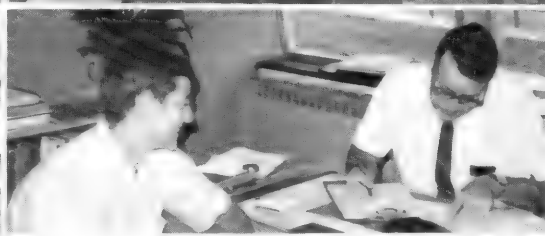

CALVIN DENNIS FARRIS

Born: July 5, 1952 Died: May 1, 1969

We are laid asleep
In body and become a living soul.

When thy mind
Shall be a mansion for all lovely forms
Thy memory be as a dwelling place
For all sweet sounds and harmonies

Curriculum

What is Steve Taylor planning? A surprise for Miss Douthat!

Putting Our Minds To Work

Mathematics is the practical tool which plays an important part in man's understanding and mastery of his environment. The Gretna High School Math Department endeavors to teach each student the mathematics necessary to develop him into a competent citizen. In math, students are encouraged to think and to develop creative ability. Each math course provides an opportunity for developing fundamental skills and understanding the basic operations of math.

Plane Geometry and Algebra III are taught by Mrs. Tyler and Miss Douthat. Trigonometry and Analysis are taught by Mrs. Tyler. This year the Math Department is using all new books.

In all math courses an effort is made to relate math to other subjects as well as life situations. All students are taught an understanding of basic mathematical process and relationships.

Miss Douthat gives assignments to her Geometry class.

I came, I saw, I conquered.

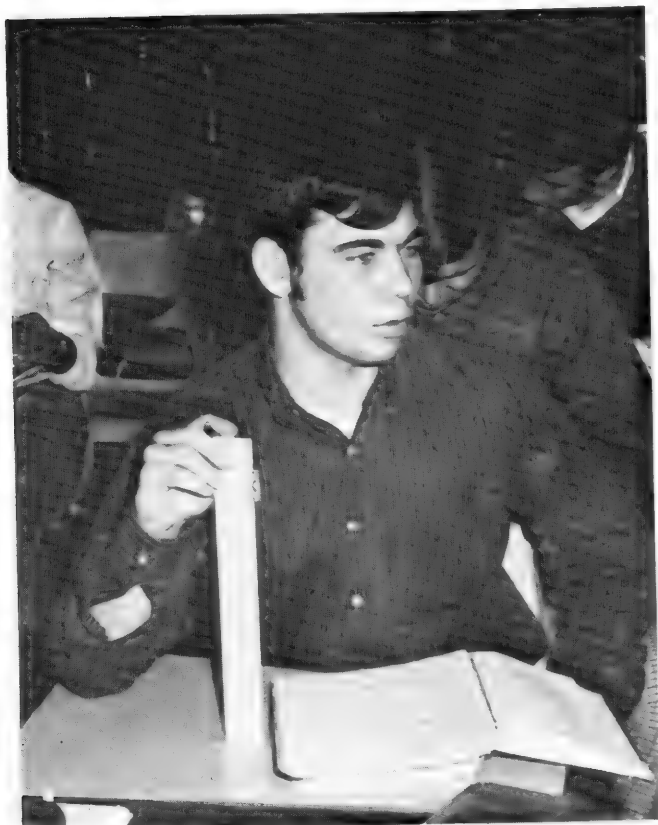

The power of the slide rule.

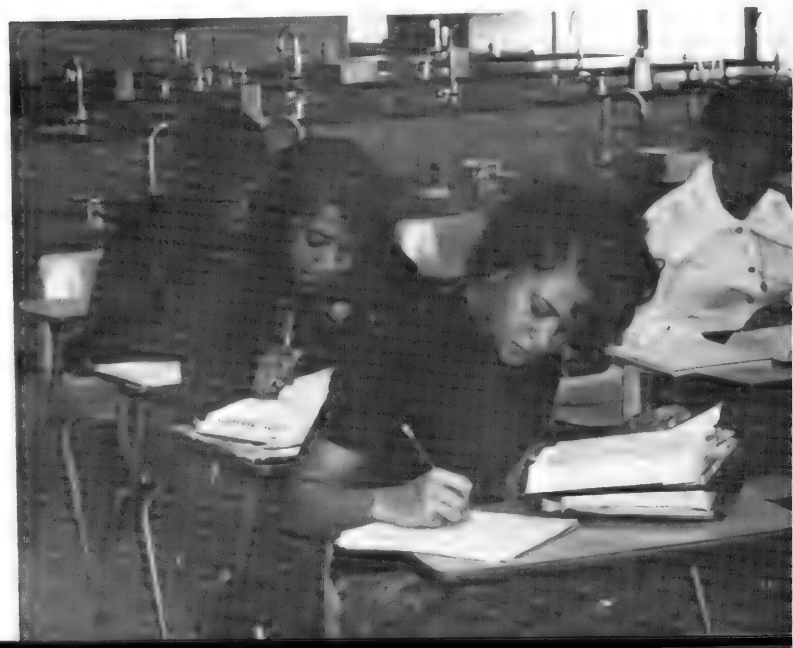

Randy Doss seeks help in Alg. III from Mrs. Tyler.

Algebra III seems to amuse many students.

Wonder why we took this class.

Jean Berger seems to find French class amusing.

Mrs. delCampo observes as Miss Motley teaches.

Learning The Language Of Others

Gretna Senior High presently offers three foreign languages, Spanish, French, and Latin. By studying any one of these languages students achieve the ability to speak, read, write, and understand a language other than English.

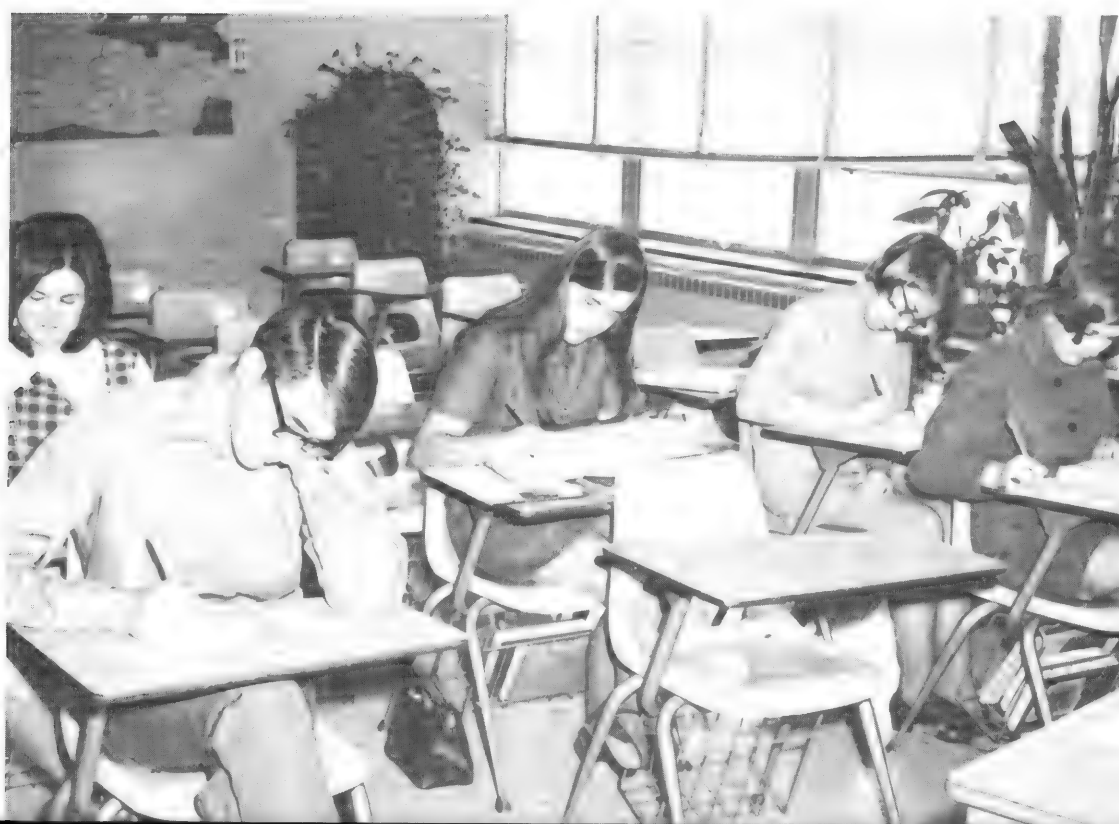

Foreign language students have access to the language lab, where they can hear dialogues by native speakers and can repeat with oral drills. Students taking foreign languages are encouraged to learn more about the countries they study by seeing films and hearing native speakers.

Latin students take their work seriously

PARLEZ-VOUS
FRANCAIS?
ASK BOO!

Translate,
translate,
TRANSLATE!

It's a bird, it's a plane, no, it's Lily.

These students seem industrious.

In The Creation Of Art

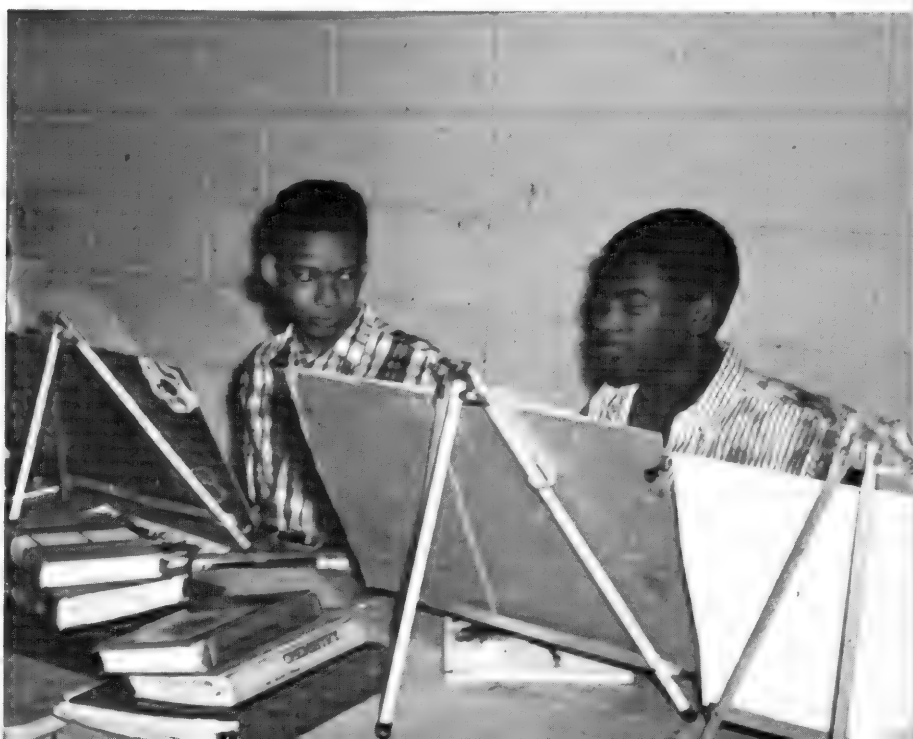

Good grief Charlie Grubbs.

Art lends strength and beauty to everyday living wherever it is taught. This is especially true here at Gretna where art courses help students use their imagination and knowledge in forming works of art. To make things that have form and beauty they put in many hours of hard work. Our teacher Mrs. King emphasizes the meaning of lines and colors as she teaches the students contour drawings, and the use of water colors, pastels, and oil paints. Art is not only a past time but also a cultural value which should be highly regarded in the years to come.

Mrs. King records grades while her students work.

In Learning About The Past

The Social Studies Department provides courses in U.S. and Va. Government, U.S. and Va. History, Economics, Sociology, World History and Geography.

Each faculty member of the Social Studies Department tries to demonstrate and develop leadership and citizenship in each student. They also help students adjust to their environment and to keep up with current events.

Though the use of maps and charts Miss Brown guides her World Geography classes around the world.

Mr. Jefferson and Miss Brown acquaint the students with the basic history of the world in their World History classes.

Through lengthy discussions Mr. Terry teaches his U.S. students to be good citizens and well-adjusted members of society.

Mrs. Short, by having students give current news reports, and participate in mock trials emphasizes that Government is still alive.

Mrs. Scott and Mr. Amason teach the basic economy of business and Government in Economics.

Whether it's touring a business with Mrs. Scott and Mr. Amason, visiting Egypt and the land of the Nile with Mr. Jefferson, touring the many countries with Miss Brown, fighting the Civil War with Mr. Terry, or walking through the halls of Congress with Mrs. Short, Gretna Senior High School offers unlimited opportunity through the Social Studies Department.

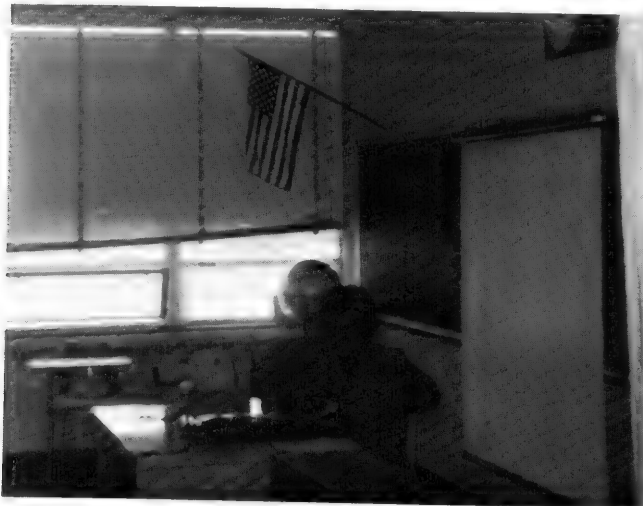

What do Sherril Moon, Stafford Cothran, and Danny Myers know about the BILL OF RIGHTS?

Our History Department has its own Thomas Jefferson.

Mrs. Short enters class after lunch.

Miss Brown relaxes between classes.

In Studying Our Language

Mrs. Berger will always be her same sweet self.

Studying hard, Boys?!!!

It is the intent of the language arts program to promote the achievements by students of the following abilities, understandings, and attitudes:

To develop a reading procedure that will provide healthy attitudes, high ideals, critical standards, and worthwhile goals as a background for living and adjusting to the work-day world.

To develop a method of reading for understanding information, enjoyment and appreciation.

To enable the student to express himself clearly, correctly, and effectively in sentences, paragraphs, and composition. To train in correct spelling, punctuation, neatness, and legibility.

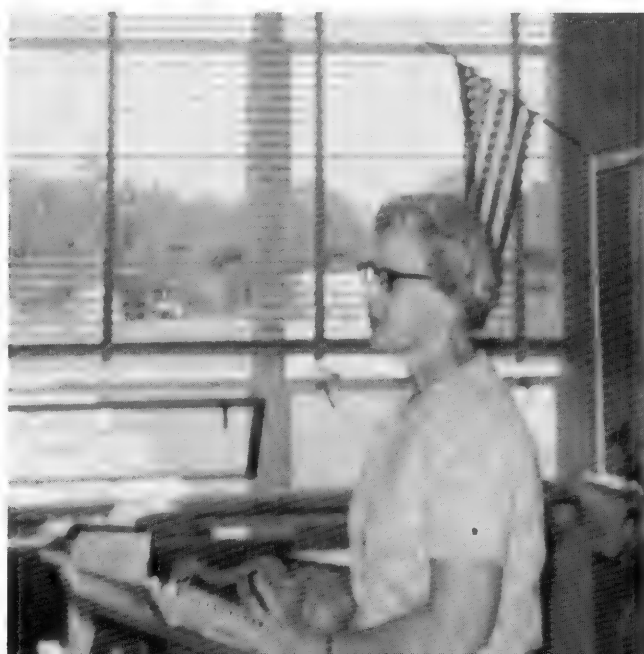

To teach effective communication through speech which is logical, thoughtful, distinct, and fluent.

To equip the student with skills and habits necessary for listening intelligently, critically, and responsively.

To foster critical thinking, to glean from literature the basic tenets of freedom and dignity concomitant with the democratic civilization.

To stimulate an awareness of the ethical and moral ideas which promote universal love, respect, and understanding. To supply the student with that measure of linguistic sophistication which facilitates appraisal of culture of any chosen group of people.

Mrs. Anderson lectures to her English classes?

What could be so interesting?

What could Miss Hall, Vickie Saunders, and Spencer Kidd be up to now?

Debbie Gibson gives her speech in her interesting Drama class.

Mrs. Angel enjoys telling stories to her English classes.

Miss Quarles gives individual help to students.

Is this really an English class?

In Understanding Our World

Using the advanced technology, labs, and equipment of today our students are better trained for future careers. The science courses through research and laboratory experiments offer students a knowledge of the world they live in and how it functions.

Biology classes enable students to study all living organisms by the dissections of frogs, bait worms, and crayfish.

The more advanced science classes, Chemistry and Physics, prepared student for college and future careers.

Chemistry offers students the opportunity to make experiments in the lab using principles he has learned.

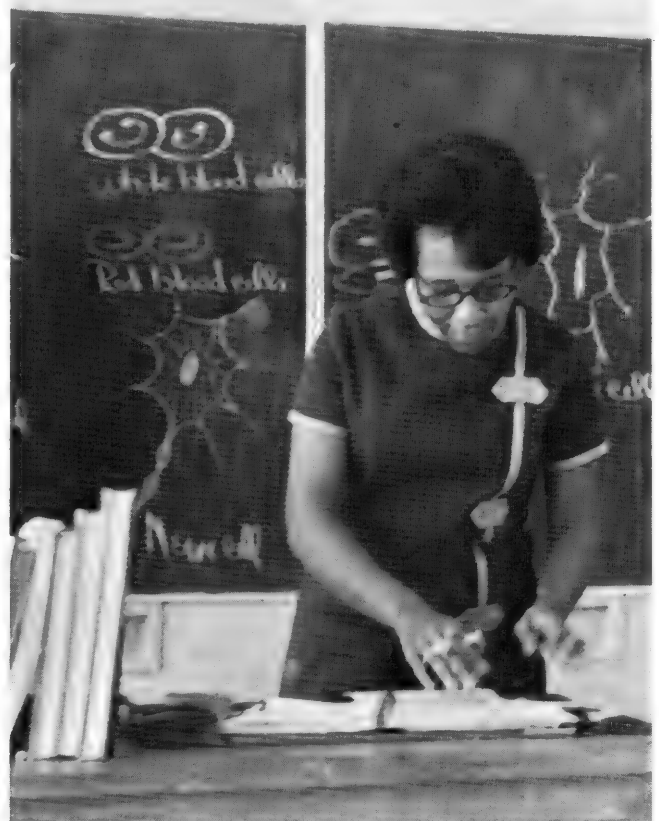

Physics is a smaller class in which students depend on slide-rules to solve their problems.

Mrs. McClanahan explains Biology Theory to her students.

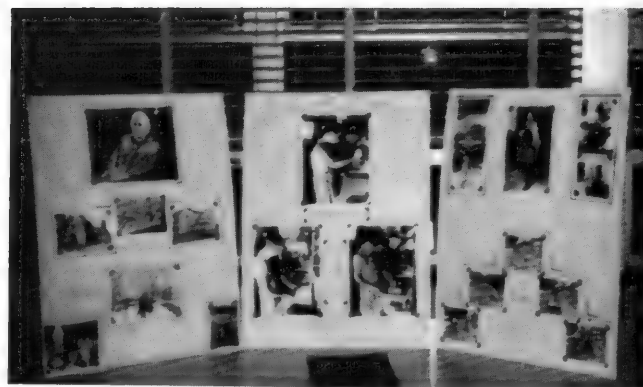

Mrs. Harris adjusts the microscope for Dwight Adkinson.

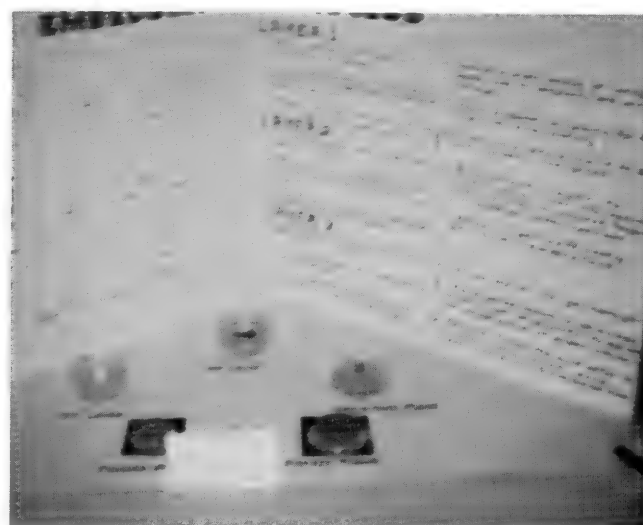

Illustrations on the board help Mrs. Strawder explain biology to her students.

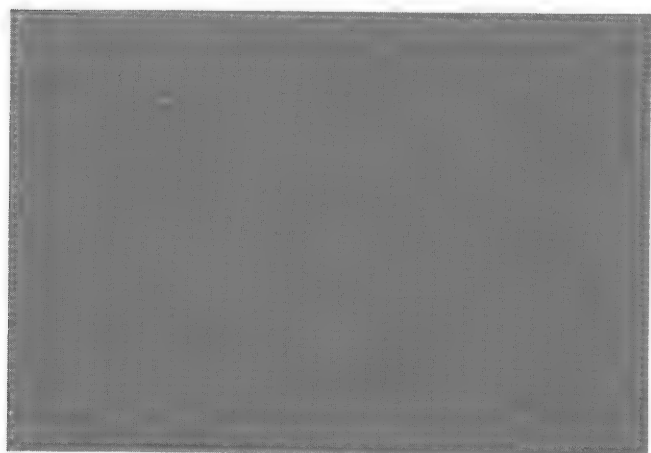

This rocket project is very relevant to today's space-age world.

Photography was the subject of this fine project.

This project was a ribbon winner at the Science Fair.

This homemade radio works just like the real one!

Mrs. Harris exhibits this project at the Science Fair.

These Biology students really work hard!

Mr. Harris laughs along with his D.E. class

Connie Burton and Mona Puckette proudly display their trophies.

D.E. Students Prepare To "Meet The World"

Distributive Education is a program designed to develop leadership in marketing and managing. D.E. students learn to be responsible for themselves and others.

D.E. prepares the students, who do not wish to go to college, for work. In second and third year D.E., students work on part-time jobs and go to school also.

Stanley Dalton, Randall Toney, and Auburn Farmer show that D. E. is a hard working class.

Mary Ellen Keesee and Linda Bolling.

Mr. Harris lectures to his class.

D. E. students leave G. H. S. to attend district meeting.

Mr. Byrd grades students as they practice.

Getting a good practice?

Physical Education Builds Well-Adjusted Students

Physical Education classes give students a time to relax and enjoy school.

Mentally, it enables you to learn the value of clean sportsmanship and competition. Physically, it helps you to develop your mind and body. Socially, it completes a well rounded day with work and play.

Girls classes are taught by Mrs. Gloria Motley and Miss Pansy Robertson.

Boys' classes are taught by Mr. Roger Byrd, Mr. Lawson Andrews, and Mr. Dennis Craddock.

Gym classes begin with jumping jacks, sit-ups, and push-ups. In the fall classes participate in volleyball and football. Basketball is the major winter sport and soft ball is enjoyed in the spring.

Health, first aid, and driver's training is also taught. Instructors try to provide useful and valuable information needed by the students in their daily lives.

Ricky Jones leads the class in exercises.

These boys are anxious to get the ball.

Debbie Wisinski and Debbie La Fontaine wait for a jump ball.

Even girls enjoy football.

Glenn Pickeral, Dexter Shelton, and Winbern Tosh listen attentively to Mr. Andrew.

Home Economic Students Learn to Cook, Sew And Clean.

Georgia Tosh receives assistance from Mrs. Keyes who believes in individual help.

Mr. Spellman, the assistant principal takes advantage of the good cooking of new Home Ec. students.

Jane Manning has learned to sew skillfully with the help of good teachers.

Sherry Simpson seems to be ambitious when it comes to sewing.

"Oh, Fred, What am I going to do about my dishpan hands?"

We strive, in the homemaking program at Gretna High School, to make a large "dent" in the girls' preparation for living in an ever-changing society.

We feel that regardless of what a student will become, or what her aspirations are, she will always need to know how to improve her methods of every day living. For this she will always have to do, whether alone or in a family.

Home Economics is concerned with the application of knowledge and skills that will enable the girls to become very "consumer oriented."

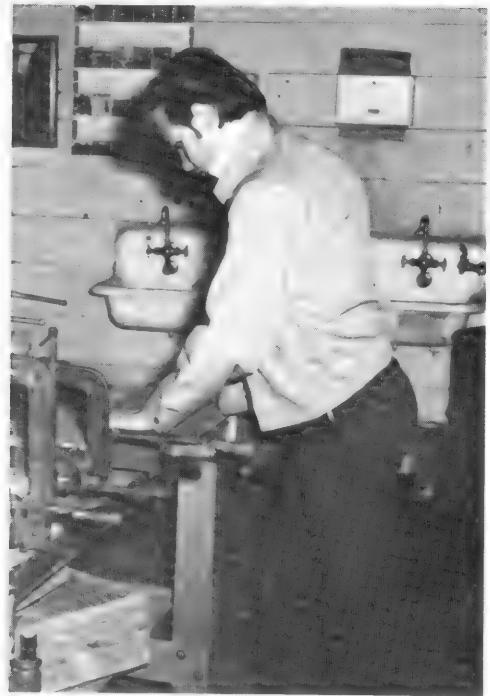

Since we will be using goods and services the rest of our lives, every unit of work is geared to this end.

Improved living habits, other than foods and clothing are stressed. We strive to make each student proficient in the homemaking arts and a contributing member of her home, school, and community. We work with the problems of every day living.

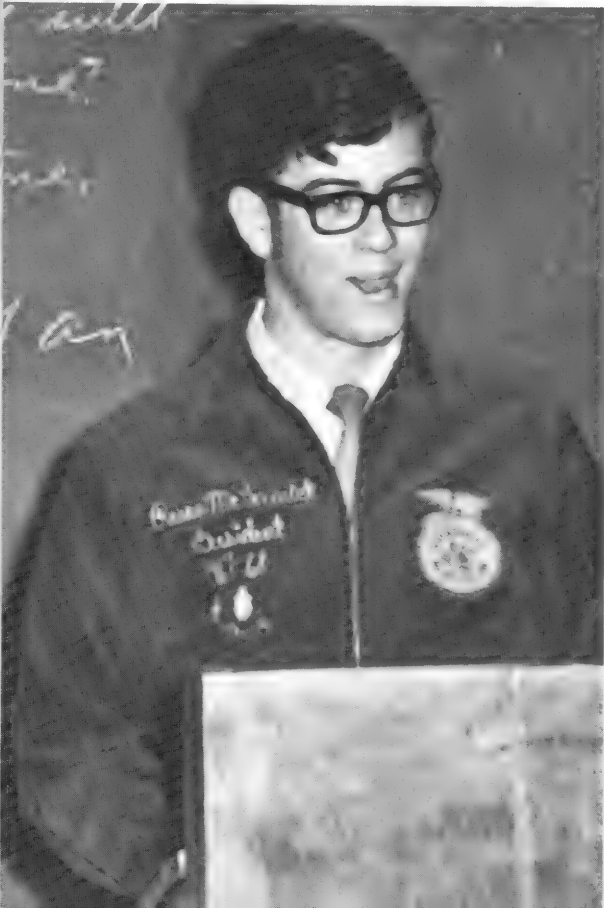

Mrs. Keyes takes time out for a bite to eat.

Learning About Agriculture

Danny sands wood.

W.K. presides over FFA.

Welding, tractor driving, the repairing of farm machinery, and judging timber are some of the many things that students study in Agriculture. They learn by experience. They are required to keep record books, to show the completion of farm projects and to demonstrate the way these projects are carried out. Students participate in contests among themselves and with other schools.

Mr. Shorter instructs his students.

Mr. Locust explains to his class: first you take the seed, then you dig a hole, then . . .

Now that they've cut it down, how are they going to put it back?

A new teacher?

Alton Dudley receives individual aid.

Mr. Angel keeps the records for FFA.

In Learning To Build New Things

Mr. Culberston enjoys teaching very much.

Industrial Arts

Industrial Arts at Gretna High under the supervision of Mr. Locust and Mr. Culberston, provides necessary training and skill in the fields of industry.

The objectives of Industrial Arts are to help the student understand the basic needs of industry and its influence on our world.

With the help of Mr. Locust and Mr. Culberston these students will learn skills which will prove invaluable later.

This boy seems to be having fun as he "knocks on metal."

Mr. Shorter plays tape to class as Calvin Roach looks on.

Reese McCormick, President of F.F.A., enjoys Industrial Arts very much.

Industrial arts turns things upside down.

Mr. Shorter demonstrates for the class.

Mr. Locust grades papers in his free time.

Be careful, Glen!

Mrs. Pendergrass is caught by surprise.

Students prepare for the future.

Business Classes Prepare Students For The Future; A Job;

Mrs. Franks, teacher of Typing, Shorthand, and Office Practice, enjoys teaching.

Is Mr. Wilkerson sleeping on the job?

Keep typing, girls!

College; Work With Pleasure.

Miss Foley enjoys lecturing her typing class.

In The Appreciation

The Gretna High School Band, consisting of eighty-three members, participates in special assemblies, pep rallies, Christmas parades and performs during half-time at the football games. Concerts are presented to the public at various times during the year.

Mr. Swart and Mr. Collins are especially proud of the fifty-two band members who attained seats in the all-County Band, and the eleven who attained seats in the Virginia District VI Regional All-State Band.

Of Music . . .

The Gretna High School Chorus under the direction of Mr. Al Colins, has progressed this year. In addition to the mixed Chorus, a select group, The Girl's Ensemble, for which chorus members participate in the District Music Festival and All-County Chorus as well as local concerts. Mariannis Mason, Carol Aylor, Pat Bailey, Gail Dalton, and Harold Jones were the members selected to participate in All-Regional Chorus this year. The Gretna High School Choral Award went to Karen Nunn. We are proud of the effort put into our Music Department by our singers.

Linda Bennett, Debra Walker, Pam Eastham practice for the Girl's Ensemble.

BETA CLUB

The Gretna Beta, a chapter of the National Beta Club, is a non-secret honorary club open to those students who at the end of their sophomore year have maintained an average of 3.2 in their qualities of honesty, leadership, and service in their school activities. New members are taken into the club during the second semester of their sophomore year and must maintain a 3.2 average to stay in the club for the remainder of their high school days.

Members of the Beta Club receive the National Beta Journal, the official magazine of the Beta Clubs throughout the nation. This magazine has wonderful and exciting articles, poems, and strains of other Beta Clubs throughout the nation in their efforts to make their Clubs the best ever. This magazine's stories are enjoyed by everyone, and they tend to broaden the horizons of its readers.

The Beta Club members sold candy as its money-making project for the year. The Beta's also sponsored, as they do each year, the White Christmas. They took up money, canned goods, clothing, and toys and gave all of these things to a needy family.

As usual, the highlight of the Beta year is the annual Beta Convention. This year, the convention was held in Roanoke. Everyone seemed to have had a wonderful, exciting time. The Beta Club strives to lead students toward better academic work and better qualities of service and leadership. It's up to the students to make themselves known for these accomplishments.

Is Steve trying to explain something, or is he trying to get across the idea that he wants the Beta members to come to order?

Ann Eastham, Pat Bailey, Carol Aylor, Louise McCormick, and Mariannis Mason present a program at a Beta Club meeting.

In Business

The Future Business Leaders of America is a growing club in Gretna this year. Its purpose is to encourage and promote business leadership, to promote vocational business and office education to the students of Gretna High School.

To become a member of the FBLA one must be enrolled in at least one business subject, be familiar with the purposes and creed of the FBLA, and show promptness, alertness, willingness, and eagerness to work for the organization, school, and community.

The FBLA members believe in free education for the youth of America and believe that the future of America depends upon an understanding of today's business world.

The sponsors this year are Mr. Wilkerson, Mrs. Franks, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Pendergrass, and Miss Foley.

Identication

The Varsity Club is an organization of boys who have earned a letter in one of the four sports offered at Gretna High School.

The two main objectives of the Varsity Club are to give recognition to boys lettering in one of the sports at Gretna High School and to provide for good sportsmanship among the players.

Promoting Good School Spirit And Sportsmanship

Pep Club

The Pep Club one of the largest clubs at Gretna Senior High School, is an organization for the purpose of good Sportsmanship and for the purpose of not only backing up the Cheerleaders, but also of backing up various teams during the sports seasons.

The rules that a Pep Club member should follow are: (1) Unless impossible, members must attend 2/3 of the home football and basketball games; (2) If transportation is provided -- away games should be attended; (3) Members must back up the cheerleaders in cheers; and (4) Meetings must be attended.

All girls are invited to join as long as they obey the Pep Club rules. The Club welcomes anyone who is willing to promote sportsmanship in the cheering section of our school.

The Pep Club members sponsored several pep rallies during the basketball and football seasons.

Isn't this the coolest, female looking bull you've ever seen?

SURPRISE -- SURPRISE -- SURPRISE!

No man is an island, Linda, even though it seems that way.

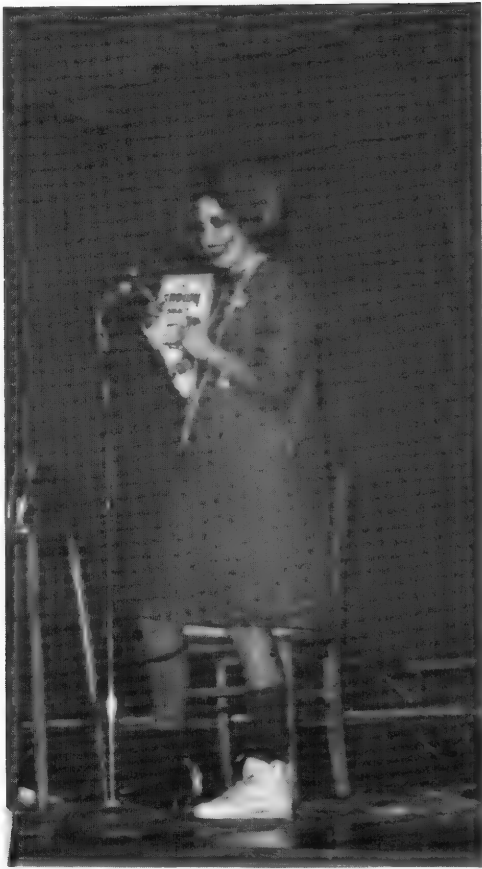

The Girls With Letters . . .

The Monogram Club has a total of 28 members who have lettered in cheerleading and basketball. New members were inducted last year on April 1. They included characters from Tiny Tim, Phyllis Diller, Mary Poppins, Peter Pan, to Betty Davis, Shirley Temple, Mama Cass, Carol Burnette, Annie Oakley, and Ruth Buzzy. Debra Barker and Judy Pippin, winners of the talent contest, received a pie in the face.

This year the girls from the Letterman Club were united with the Monogram Club. The club has worked to develop good sportsmanship throughout the school.

The purpose of the Gretna Tri-Hi-Y is to create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character.

The club projects include observing Tri-Hi-Y Week and Teacher's Week, having devotions for Thanksgiving and Christmas over the intercom, making presents for children in the Faith Home, and decorating tables for Thanksgiving.

The Dreams Of Science . . .

The Luceina Association, better known as the Science Club, composed of thirty-four members, was formed so that students sharing a common interest in science would have an opportunity to learn and work together.

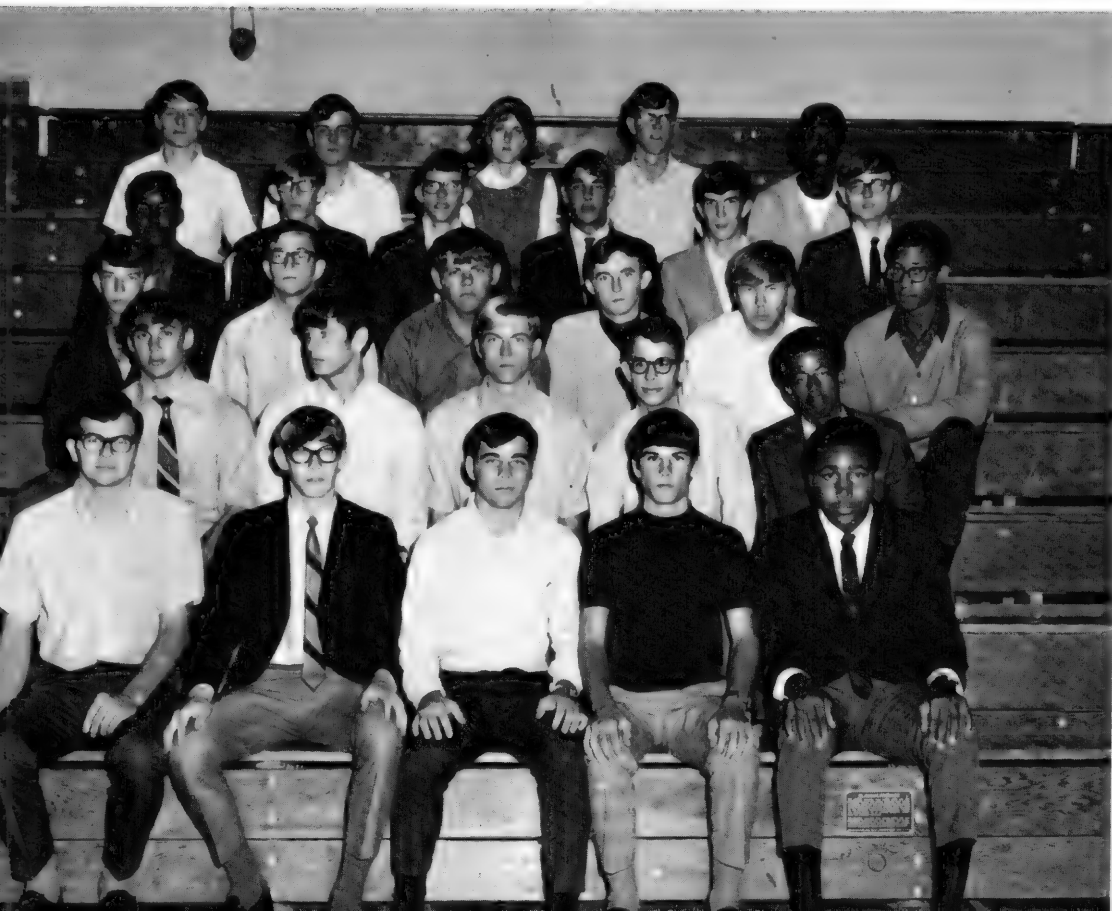

The Science Club hopes to encourage independent scientific thinking among its high school members.

One of the main interests of the year is the annual Science Fair which presents the projects that the members built. One of the most important requirements of each member of the Science Club is the preparation of a project to be displayed at the fair.

The Club's projects this year were the Science Fair and the continued maintenance of the dark room, which was organized last year.

C. J. Brown makes another putout at first base.

Behind the outstanding pitching of Junior Richard Turner and the steady play of the defense, the 1969 Hawks put together a 9-4 record, the best at Gretna in five years.

This year's diamond squad was known throughout the district for its hustle and ability to make a comeback win. The Hawks scored a total of 92 runs while allowing the opposition only 44, giving up three or less runs in nine games. This can be accredited to the timely hitting and explosiveness of the team.

Coach Rut Moon closed out his last year as coach, but left his predecessor with seven starters and eight lettermen returning.

Shortstop Kenny Moran prepares to hit as the ump cleans the plate.

Joe Shelton prepares to steal second in 15-1 win over William Campbell.

Hawks Win County Meet

The 1969 Gretna Hawk Track team ran their string of dual meet victories to 23 last season. Although the team had many outstanding performers, their depth was the key to many victories. In the course of the season, seven school records were broken. Derry Price, recipient of the Most Valuable Track Award and the teams high scorer, set school and county records in both the 100 and 220 yd. dashes. Richard Cocke broke both the school and district records in the discus and Archie Towler established school and county records in the two-mile run. Rueben Allen set school and county records in both the high and low hurdles. The climax of this most successful season was the State Meet, where O.J. Hall placed fourth in the shot put and Terry Pope finished fifth in the broad jump.

The 1969 Gretna Hawks posted their third straight winning season on the gridiron under the able coaching of Coach Slick Andrews and Coach Dennis Craddock. The rock hard defense once again was the trademark of the team, giving up only 85 points in ten games, to sport the best defense ever at Gretna. Their best game of the season was played on the Gretna field when the undefeated Governors of Nelson County invaded Hawk territory boasting a 6-0 record. The aroused Hawks played an outstanding game. In the final minutes, Mike Bond slanted off left tackle and rambled 48 yards to the twelve yard line. Three plays later Mike Felts booted a 20 yard field goal for the 3-0 victory with 33 seconds remaining. The Hawks closed out the season with a respectable 6-4 record. Co-captains for this year's team were Mike Felts, Fred Midkiff, Bugin Jefferson, and Raleigh James. Fred Midkiff and Raleigh James were named to All-District, and All-State teams.

The 1969 Basketball Team, dominated by seniors, started the season with hopes of the first winning season in three years. However the breaks went against them and this goal was not realized. The team played well in several games, which it lost in the closing minutes or in overtime. Probably the best team effort of the year came in the 65-50 victory over Rustburg. The team was led in scoring by guard Lafayette Lovelace and forward captain Mike Felts. Ballhandling chores were handled by senior guards Danny Johnson and Fred Midkiff. Defensive stand-outs were Bugin Jefferson and Aaron Shortt, while the big men under the boards were Tony Cooper and George Randall. Although Randall is the only returning starter, a talented J.V. promises hope for the future.

The Gretna Junior Varsity ended its season with a 11-2 district record and as champions during the regular season. The team was known throughout the district for its sticky defense and high scoring offense. On the average, the Baby Hawks gave up only 41 points while scoring 60. Carlton Hall, Kenny Gaddy, and Ricky Hedrick took care of the scoring chores while Danny Dillard, Kim Felts, and Ronald "Deacon" Jones took the rebounding responsibility. The J.V.'s success can also be attributed to a strong second string which always did a fine job. This year's team showed great potential. Its experience and teamwork will help in making a fine varsity squad next year.

This year's co-captains were Danny Dillard and Kenny Gaddy.

Carol Aylor and Dianne Cothran were co-captains of the basketball cheerleading squad.

Hey, Show 'Em Your Might, Gretna!

The Varsity Basketball Cheerleading squad of '69-'70 with co-captains Dianne Cothran and Carol Aylor led the Mighty Hawks through their struggle towards victory. Their sponsor was Miss Robertson.

For the first time at Gretna High School, the J.V. team had the support of cheerleaders. These sophomore cheerleaders worked hard to present new cheers and chants to the student body to push the J.V. team to first place. The squad was managed by Patricia Walden and Sylvilean Morrison. Their assistance was greatly appreciated. Miss Mary Strawder was willing to take the job as sponsor and she will always be thanked for it.

And Fun Begins

The S.C.A. student-faculty game was a big success as usual. The fun began as the teachers came onto the court. Cheers arose from the crowd when Tom Slick, Wildman Locust and Iron Man Craddock were presented to the students. The game was continually interrupted by the "cheerleaders" coming out on the court to try to cheer their team to victory. The teachers tried their best to win but they just couldn't keep up with the students who seem to be better on the court than in the class room.

Talent Show Is A Hit

The 1969 talent show sponsored by the F.B.L.A. and the Parrot Staff began with a bang as the G.H.S. amateurs proved they had more talent than was expected. The audience was simply "not prepared" for the unexpected performance of Janet Worsham as she sang "Harper Valley P.T.A.", or when Susan Hamlett mystified us by singing "Tammy".

As an emcee Lynn Adams surpassed the standards of portraying Mark Twain. The introducing of the other talented amateurs was more than effective by Lynn's special touch.

The show was a unique combination of enjoyable and interesting performances which were all well liked by the audience.

Strumming her guitar, Janet Worsham sings "Harper Valley P. T. A."

Is this Mark Twain or Lynn Adams?

The audience is hushed while Bill Davis gives his monologue.

Billy Witcher and Danny Myers play a cornet solo while . . .

Randy Doss, Steve Taylor, Stafford Cothran, and Roger Rhinehart play the melody for the Boptusie Machine.

Dianne Arthur, Sandra Cochran, and Tommy Cochran entertain the audience as they sing as a trio.

Pat Bailey gracefully sings "Climb Every Mountain".

As an amateur Wendell Hudson exceeds the standards of a country singer.

The Unbearable "Laugh-In"

It was the "grand old day" of March 13, 1969 on which the Beta Club of Gretna High School sponsored its "Johngram and Inson's" one and only "Laugh-In". The student body, teachers, and the administration not only observed this event, but they also participated in it. All money taken up at this gala event as an admission charge, went to the Beta Club as a money-making project. Everyone thoroughly enjoyed this "happen-ing" to the fullest extent.

"Mr. Inson" (Mr. Ingram) welcomes all to Gretna's "Laugh-In".

Will Mr. Yeatts ever grow-up?

Is Mr. Craddock praying or is he asking for Mrs. Pendergrass' "hand"?

Our "Great" Mr. McKeever announces the "happenings" of gorgeous downtown GRETN.

Mr. Andrews praising the Hawks, gives the local sports news.

CC and the Soul really turned us on.

"Somewhere My Love"

Through many preparations the Jr. -Sr. Prom of 1969 at Gretna High was held as a great success. The Junior class worked hard all year in preparing this great event for the Senior class.

The theme was "Somewhere My Love" and was carried out with the colors royal purple and violet. Bamboo trees and a giant mask of paper mache added to the scenery. There were refreshments served in the cafeteria which were enjoyed by everyone.

CC and the Soul added their highlights as everyone danced to their music.

The prom was enjoyed by everyone and this year's will be anxiously awaited.

A starry-eyed Miss Grant and an awed Mr. Terry watch as the seniors and their dates enjoy the prom.

Jimmy Wilkerson and Karen Nunn kept up with CC and the Soul.

"To Reach The Unreachable Star"

June 4, 1969, Graduation Day, was the big event for the Seniors of 1969. The commencement exercises began at 8:00 p.m. and were held on the G.H.S. athletic field for the first time.

The Reverend Charles Thompson of the New Prospect Baptist Church had the invocation. Karen Dalton, president of the Senior Class, then extended a warm welcome to all. David Gay, vice-president of the Class, introduced the speaker, Dr. John L. Sutenfield. Following his speech, Misses Susan Hamlett, Sherby Myers, Brenda Shelton, Anne Scruggs, and Pam Shelton sang "No Man Is An Island", with R. L. Dalton at the piano.

Mrs. Hayes introduced those who were to present the scholarships and awards, and Mr. Johnson presented the diplomas.

As the commencement exercises drew to a close, "The Halls of Ivy" was sung by the Senior Class. The Reverend R. G. Rowland had the benediction.

President of the Senior Class, Karen Dalton, extends a warm welcome to all.

Dr. Sutenfield speaks to all along with a plea for hope and guidance.

Members of the class listen intent so that this final night might prove to be the best of all their years together.

Requires Hope And Strenuous Effort

Sara Doss accepts one of the many awards she received.

Kenneth Mayhew received an award from Mr. Ingram.

Our Quest – To Follow That Star

On November 3, 1969 each Senior of the class of 1970 finally got to see and to try on that mighty class ring. Yet the next day was much more longed for than the day before. It was on November 4, 1969 that the Seniors had a special assembly to get their class rings. During the first period and one-half of the second period, the Seniors got out of class to be addressed and to be presented their rings.

Carol Aylor, Senior Class President, greeted the Seniors and their guests by extending a very warm welcome. Mike Felts, Senior Class Vice-President, introduced the Reverend R. G. Rowland of the Sandy Level Baptist Church who had the invocation and who later addressed the Seniors.

After Mr. Rowland's address, Mr. Johnson, with the assistance of Mr. McKeever, presented the Seniors their rings. Later in the day, during sixth period, the Seniors had pie and ice cream, as a special treat, in the cafeteria. One might call November 3, 1969, the Senior Day for that mighty Class of 1970 which would let the presentation of its members' rings be the beginning of a great year.

NEXT . . . STRATFORD-ON-THE-MOON?

It's not as far-fetched an idea as you might suppose

Stratford College has added some new dimensions lately to its liberal arts program for young women -- new courses, new faculty, new buildings . . . and new ideas.

Stratford believes that the full educational potential of its students may be extended by providing opportunities for study in environments specifically suited to their academic fields.

Thus, Stratford's Abroad Programs cater to the languages with Stratford-in-Italy, a summer program for study of the fine arts. And, for those interested in English literature and history, there is a Stratford-in-England summer study-tour.

With new programs being added each year to Stratford's four-year curriculum, anything . . . anywhere . . . is possible.

Come to Stratford and watch her grow.

The Impossible Dream

(The Quest)

To dream the impossible dream,
To fight the unbeatable foe,
To bear with unbearable sorrow,
To run where the brave dare not go.

To right the unrightable wrong,
To love pure and chaste from afar,
To try when your arms are too weary,
To reach the unreachable star!

This is my quest, to follow that star,
No matter how hopeless, no matter
how far;
To fight for the right without question or pause,
To be willing to march into hell
for a heavenly cause!
And I know, if I'll only be true
To this glorious quest,
That my heart will lie peaceful
and calm,
When I'm laid to my rest,
And the world will be better for this;
That one man scorned and covered with scars,
Still strove with his last ounce
of courage,
To reach the unreachable stars.
